The Los Angeles Business Travel Association (LABTA) is partnering with the Boys and Girls Club of Hollywood as part of its continued outreach program.

The event will take place on to Friday, August 4 at 3:30pm - 5pm. At the Boys and Girls Club of Hollywood at 850 N. Cahuenga Blvd. Hollywood, CA 90038

The European theme will include The Golden Greek Dance Troupe which will perform traditional Greek dances. The troupe will also provide historical information on Greece as well as perform traditional Greek dances. In addition, the children will be invited to participate and learn the dances. LABTA members will start the event by providing the kids with a geography update on Europe that will focus on the recent World Soccer Games.

LABTA is the authoritative voice of business travel management in Los Angeles. Membership is comprised of corporate travel executives and associates from the airlines, hotels, ground transportation and travel management companies.

LABTA is recognized by the National Business Travel Association (NBTA) as its official chapter in Los Angeles, California.

LABTA is a non-profit organization. Founded in 1970, it is the largest of the NBTA city chapters in the United States with current membership exceeding 250.
